220 Patients Benefit SAF & CMCC Medical Mission

The Capitol Medical Center Colleges (CMCC) under its dean, Ms Mary Jane Cortez in cooperation with the Special Action Force led by its director, PCSUPT LEOCADIO SC SANTIAGO, Jr. conducted medical mission at the SAF Brigade Headquarters, Camp Bagong Diwa, Bicutan, Taguig City on December 14, 2007.

With the CMCC Medical Mission delegates are 240 students, Medical Doctors and Staff who conducted free medical and dental check ups to 220 SAF Troopers and their immediate dependents. Free medicines were also given to the patients.

The medical mission was conducted as a thanksgiving activity for the successful CMCC blood-letting activity supported by SAF on October 26, 2007. The coordinator for the activity is Mrs Consolacion Damian, the better half of SAF Deputy Director PSSUPT ROBERTO M DAMIAN, CSEE.

Highlighting the activity was the Christmas Party of the CMCC Students held together with the Medical Mission. The Christmas Party that featured games, dance and song numbers was also participated by SAF Troopers. The Students and troopers joined together in a boodle fight lunch.

The activity that fostered camaraderie between two organizations and develop the social skills of troopers is one of the PCR activities lined up by the SAF in celebration of the yuletide season.
